GENTLEMEN: This morning, considerable excitement prevails among our indignant citizens. A man, who calls himself W. R. Davis—a stralling daguerrectypin—who hails from Cincinnati, had, but a few d ys since, stopped in our vi lage for the purpose of taking pictures. Both his manner and Administration now reigning over us at Washington holds to be not only entirely beyond the reach of our government but unworthy of its serious atof our government but unworthy of its rerious attention. The Buchanan Administration admits or avows that in all such cases the rative asserting is marely asserting his clear right under the laws of nations. This is the doctrine just amourted by Mr. Secretary Cass. It is the doctrine which the Administration that the secretary Cass. It is the doctrine which the Administration are secretary Cass. It is the doctrine which the Administration are secretary Cass. tions. This is the doctrine just announced by Mr. Secretary Case. It is the doctrine which the Adthat there who delight in the study of character will enjoy the lace, of a light or sandy color, rather light hair.
